Banking Regulations Notice for Partners and Merchants and Payees in the EEA

This section applies to Partners and Merchants and Payees who have relationships with PayPal (Europe) S.à r.l. et Cie, S.C.A. In general, the Luxembourg laws to which Hyperwallet's handling of personal information is subject (data protection and bank secrecy) require a higher degree of transparency than most other EU laws. This is why, unlike the vast majority of providers of internet-based services or financial services in the EU, Hyperwallet has listed in this Privacy Policy the third-party service providers and business partners to whom we may disclose your Personal Information, together with the purpose of disclosure and type of information disclosed. You will find a link to those third parties here. Hyperwallet may update the list of third parties referred to above every quarter (January 1st, April 1st, July 1st and October 1st). Hyperwallet will only start transferring any data to any of the new entities or for the new purposes or data types indicated in each update after 30 days from the date when that list is made public through this Privacy Policy. You should review the list each quarter on the Hyperwallet Sites on the dates stated above. If you do not object to the new data disclosure, within 30 days after the publication of the updated list of third parties, you are deemed to have accepted the changes to the list and to this Privacy Policy. Your use of the Services constitutes your consent to our transfer of such information to provide you the Services.

Specifically, you consent to and direct Hyperwallet to do any and all of the following with your information:

- Disclose necessary information to: the police and other law enforcement agencies; security forces; competent governmental, intergovernmental or supranational bodies; competent agencies, departments, regulatory authorities, self-regulatory authorities or organizations (including, without limitation, the Agencies referenced in the “Agencies” section of the Third Party Provider List here) and other third parties, including PayPal Companies, that (i) we are legally compelled and permitted to comply with, including but without limitation the Luxembourg laws of 24 July 2015 on the US Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act (“FATCA Law”) and 18 December 2015 on the OECD common reporting standard (“CRS Law”); (ii) we have reason to believe it is appropriate for us to cooperate with in investigations of fraud or other illegal activity or potential illegal activity, or (iii) to conduct investigations of violations of our user agreements (including without limitation, your funding source or credit or debit card provider).

If you are covered by the FATCA or CRS Law, we are required to give you notice of the information about you that we may transfer to various authorities. For example, if you use the Services to buy or sell goods using eBay Inc, or its affiliates (“eBay”), we may disclose Account Information with eBay in order to help protect your accounts from fraudulent activity, alert you if we detect such fraudulent activity on your accounts, or evaluate credit risk.

ii. As part of our fraud prevention and risk management efforts, we also may disclose necessary Account Information with eBay in cases where Hyperwallet has placed a hold or other restriction on your account based on disputes, claims, chargebacks or other scenarios regarding the sale or purchase of goods. Also, as part of our fraud prevention and risk management efforts, we may disclose Account Information with eBay to enable them to operate their programmes for evaluating buyers or sellers.

iii. Customer Service: for customer service purposes, including to help service your accounts or resolve disputes (e.g., billing or transactional).

iv. Legal Compliance: to help them comply with anti-money laundering and counter-terrorist financing verification requirements.

v. Service Providers: to enable service providers under contract with us to support our business operations, such as fraud prevention, bill collection, marketing, customer service and technology services. Our contracts dictate that these service providers only use your information in connection with the services they perform for us and not for their own benefit.

15. International Transfers

Our operations are supported by a network of computers, cloud-based servers, and other infrastructure and information technology, including, but not limited to, third-party service providers.

The third parties mentioned above may be established in jurisdictions other than your own. These countries do not always afford an equivalent level of privacy protection. We have taken specific steps, in accordance with data protection laws, to protect your Personal Information, including implementing adequate measures. In particular, for transfers of your EEA Personal Information within PayPal Companies, we rely on Binding Corporate Rules approved by competent Supervisory Authorities (available here). For transfers of Personal Data from the UK, these are based on contractual protections, including the UK Addendum (approved by the Information Commissioner’s Office) to the EU standard contractual clauses, approved by the European Commission. Please contact us for more information about this.
